Dan Steiner takes pride in building unique homes at affordable prices.

“We incorporate a lot of details and they’re charming,” says Steiner, who is owner and president of the company.

“We try to keep current with everything we’re doing. We try to stay up with the times and bring in fun elements. We don’t want to build cookie-cutter homes, but we want to keep it affordable.”

He says some of their homes have been featured on the popular interior design website, houzz.com.

“That’s a big compliment to us,” he says. “We’re trying to stay up with the times and bring in fun things. We have always delighted in building a really cool house.”

The company builds between 35 and 40 homes a year, and prides itself on having an excellent team of employees and providing customers with the personal touch. Homes are customized to meet the needs of each client, he says.

“We treat people with kindness and consideration,” he says. “We have been around and we know what it takes to make the customer happy. We care about you and want you to have the best house you can have, and that goes a long way.”
